

sr. no.	positive scenario	Negative scenario
1	verify that all message read or unread display on gmail.	Verify whether the Schedule send functionality is working properly or not
2	verify that send to message correct or incorrect email id.	it is not used without email id or address.
3	verify the message which time and date recived.	can't do it without internet.
4	verify the attach pin and send the important document another person.	Use an email address that does not have the "@" symbol.
5	verify that message read or unread message can show the highlighted bold displayed in inbox.	Enter spaces before or after the email address or password.
6	verify that the recently recevied email has correct sendr's name or email id, subject of the email id,its preveiw and date or time.	Provide an incorrect email format, such as "username@domain."
7	verify that the attachment file can be downloded as a single zip file.
8	verify that all read emails are not highlighted.
9	verify that the attachment file can be downloded individually.
10	verify that email can recevied from other domains like Hotmail, Yahooemail, outlook or any other domains company.
11	verify that attachment file in email downloded or not.
12	verify that the contant of email is displayed correctly without any formating issues.
13	verify that the attachment can be viewable in browser it self without downloading.
14	verify that the attachment are scanned for viruses once we try download the file.
15	verify that the reply and forward buttons are display in the bottum of the email.
16	verify that unread emails count is increased when we mark an emails as unread.
17	Verify that the maximum number of attachments and size of the attachment allowed in an email.
18	Verify whether the signature added in the settings is displayed or not when we compose an email.
19	Verify whether a warning popup message is displayed when we try to send an email without Subject line.
20	Verify that the user can add images in the email body area.
21	Verify that the sent emails are available in the Sent Mail section.	